

Paid training for a life-long career

TCI NY offers good paying jobs with strong benefits

"Our philosophy is if a person has the work ethic, we can train them," says Sam Kostue, TCI Plant Manager.

TCI offers good paying jobs with potential overtime. First year benefits include medical insurance, 401K retirement plan, personal time, paid training and opportunities to receive multiple certifications in forklift operation, CPR, and safety.

There are Work-Based learning opportunities for youth and other underserved communities. Paid internships can lead to a job offer upon successful completion of the program.

Brian Williams, Executive Director, Capital Region Workforce Development Board says, "TCI is a champion of providing on-the-job training and work-based 'learn while you earn' opportunities to new hires."
